CIVIC DIRECTORS DISCUSS ELENEN EXTENSION Railroad Efficiency Being Probed By Commission

QUESTIONNAIRE HAS BEEN SENT TO ROADS

Commerce Commission
Orders Investigation
Of Total Costs

GIVEN TO MAY 25
TO MAKE REPLY

Pay Rates and Amount
Of Work Done To
Be Reported On

(Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, April 18.—As a part of its inquiry into efficiency and economy of railroad management, the interstate commerce commission has ordered the 51 largest railroads to furnish, under oath, responses to a questionnaire covering labor conditions in their maintenance departments and the general situation in regard to fitness of their equipment.

The companies were given until May 25 to reply.
Each railroad was asked for data as to how the strike of shopmen had affected it and whether any settlement had been made with the employees as a body. Where no agreement has been formally made, the roads were required to state what the striking employees demanded before returning to work.

They were also asked for information on the expenditures made in fighting the strike, such as in providing for lodging for guards for the strike-breakers, and to give by months from July 1, 1921, to March 31, 1923, the total number of train and engine employees in their service.

Other questions were designed to cover the amount of traffic handled, the number of locomotives in use and the records of their service ability, including locomotives and car breakdowns. In connection with the number of men employed, the questionnaire sought pay rates and the record of work accomplished.

Details of railroad practices in contracting out repair work on locomotives and cars also was requested.
In instituting its general inquiry into efficiency and economy of railroad management, the commission some weeks ago addressed general questionnaires to all railroads concerning some of the matters dealt with in a more detailed fashion than in the document today.

LOCAL ATTORNEY WINS SUIT ON WILL

Opposed by Judge B. M. Allen and Major McElvin in the court of Probate Judge J. P. Stiles, of Birmingham, for the best part of two days, S. A. Lynne, local attorney, won the suit of his client, Alice Bridgeport, who had to sue in the court of the probate judge of Jefferson to secure the total amount named in a will drawn in her favor by Thomas Malone, the amount named being $8757.00. Judge Styles gave his charge as upholding the claims of the plaintiff and the jury soon found for her. Mr. Lynne is being congratulated locally on his ability to sustain his position in the long drawn out trial against such eminent lawyers as were his opponents.

Haag Show Pleases Capacity Audience

A good show and as clean as a hound's tooth was the general verdict on the Haag two ring circus last night. The tent was crowded to capacity despite the inclement weather, and when the chief ring master thanked the crowd for their kind attention after the three big elephants had carried their trainer and the American flag from the tent to the tune of the "Star Spangled Banner," everybody went home feeling that the evening had been well spent.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS MUST WEAR LONG DRESSES

Fredora Burns and Marion Stone, two pupils of the Lynn, Mass., High School, were among those who were rebuked for appearing at the Senior Class Day celebration in abbreviated costumes that were termed immodest. The Senior Class resented the decree and rose up in rebuke.

SECOND INDICTMENT IN BOGGS TRAGEDY

Partial reports from the grand jury now in session at the court house, are being made from day to day.

This morning, on an indictment issued by that body, J. Doss Hardy, was arrested and placed in the county jail on a charge of murder in the first degree in connection with the killing of Clayton and Hugh Boggs several weeks ago.

The arrest of Hardy came as a surprise as on a preliminary trial held some weeks ago, where he was asked to answer a charge of a similar character, in connection with the deaths of the Boggs Brothers, he was released.

The indictment of Hardy is contained in a joint indictment in which James M. Moss and J. Talley Moss are also charged with murder in connection with the Boggs tragedy.

Hardy, and the Moss brothers are indicted in two cases, one indictment charges all three men with murder as touching the death of Hugh Boggs, and the other indictment charges them with murder in connection with the death of Clayton Boggs.

It was stated at the court house by officials this morning that the trial of the men charged with the murder of the Boggs brothers will come up at the June term of the circuit court to be held here.

Steamer Troxell Now In Dry Dock

The American Oak Leather company, owners of the ship yards located on the Tennessee river near their big tannery, now has the river steamer J. Luther Troxell in dry dock for repairs following the mishap that came to the well known boat when a hard wind blew her against the Southern railroad bridge across the Tennessee river some weeks ago.

The Troxell has been at the ship yards for about a week and work on her is progressing nicely it was reported at the offices of the American Oak Leather company this morning.

FIFTY CONVERTS AT REVIVAL MEETING

Fifty odd converts are reported this morning from the Willoughby Presbyterian up to the present time with prospects bright for still greater results as the meeting progresses.

Rev. Walter Crawford of Birmingham, the evangelist who is doing the preaching for the services preached last night on the doctrine of hell as contained in the account of Dives and Lazarus.

Rev. Crawford, said that it was significant that the interview at the time Abraham, was in company with Lazarus and when the Rich Man lifted up his eyes "being in torment," terminated with no hint or suggestion as to how Dives might extricate himself from his miserable plight. It was shown, on the other hand, that no provision would be made for Dives or others in the same predicament, other than to just let them stay where they had fallen. The tree lies according as it has fallen, was taught with great cleverness by the evangelist. The expression made to Dives to the effect that "a great gulf" separated Lazarus and his kind from Dives and his kind was dwelt upon.

Rev. A. N. Penland, and the elders of the Willoughby church are anxious to get the full cooperation of all interested in the Southside revival, and a cordial invitation especially is extended to ministers of the Twin Cities to attend the future meetings of the series. It is expected that Rev. Crawford will continue the meeting which has been in progress over a week, for at least another week.

CONVICT DESCRIBES FLOGGING IN CAMP

Florida House Voted
Today to Abolish
Whippings

ACTION IS TAKEN
BY LEGISLATURE

John Gardner Tells Of Mistaken Identity
Ending in Beating

(Associated Press.)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., April 18.—The house today voted 63 to 15 to abolish corporal punishment in this state in the handling of county prisoners. The action came on the adoption of an amendment offered by Representative Davis to a measure, which would abolish the convict leasing system.

The morning was consumed in discussion of various amendments to the bills of lesser importance.

How it felt to be lashed by a convict whipping boss was related today to the joint legislative committee investigating reported brutalities in Florida convict camps, by John Gardner, 18, who said he resided in Altoona, Pa., prior to enlisting in the United States army.

The committee continued today to question witnesses in connection with the death of Martin Tabert, of North Dakota who died while serving a sentence at the lease convict camp of the Putnam Lumber company. Tabert is alleged to have been flogged to death by Walter Higginbotham, who witnesses say, was the camp's "whipping boss."

Higginbotham now is under an indictment, charging him with first degree murder growing out of the investigation conducted by Madison County Grand jury into Tabert's death. Gardner in answer to questions, propounded by Senator John T. Stokes, chairman, declared that he was whipped three times within a week, that he received approximately 50 licks each time and that Higginbotham was the whipping boss.

"What offense did you commit?" Chairman Stokes asked the witness.

"Nothing," replied the witness. "Higginbotham told me afterwards that he thought that I was one of them turpentine fellers, I was a number, who had arrived at the camp."

"Then you were a victim of mistaken identity?"

"Yes," replied the witness. "The boss whipped all of the 18 turpentine men after that. He said they complained about treatment they received at the last camp they were in."

"Did the whipping you received draw any blood?" was the next question.

"Yes—I was unable to lay on my back for a month," declared Gardner.

The witness said two days lapsed between his first whipping and his second and third. He said that when he was whipped the third time he had been engaged in working in a water hole with Martin Tabert.

"What did Higginbotham say to you after he had beat you?" Senator W. A. McWilliams, a member of the committee, asked.

"He told me he would kill me the next time. He then called Tabert out of the water hole and began whipping him," said Gardner.

"How frequent did you see whipping in the camp?" the witness was asked by Senator McWilliams.

"Ten or twelve every day."

The witness related the flogging given Tabert by Higginbotham four days before the North Dakotan died, corroborating witnesses who testified toward this end of the hearing yesterday.

A list of 37 witnesses, including Mrs. Ben Tabert, of Munich, N. D., mother of Tabert, and Ben Tabert, his brother, was submitted today to the committee by Assistant Attorney General G. Grimson, of North Dakota, to be summoned.

Persons residing in the states of Washington, North Dakota, New York, Virginia, Tennessee and Florida are scheduled to come here to appear before the committee.

MRS. FORD WOULDN'T LIVE IN WHITE HOUSE

Mrs. Henry Ford, nee.

The Henry Ford boom for the Presidency, while yet a bit undefined, received a severe jolt when Mrs. Henry Ford told people in Georgia recently that she wouldn't live in the White House and that if Mr. Ford were elected he would have to go to Washington alone.

DR. DINSMORE IS CALLED BY DEATH

The sad news was received here at noon today of the death of Dr. W. M. Dinsmore, which occurred this morning in Nashville, where he was taken about ten days ago for treatment following a severe attack of blood poisoning, with which he had suffered for some time before he was taken to Nashville specialists.

The funeral of the beloved physician was announced by friends will be held here tomorrow, with interment in the city cemetery.

The body of Dr. Dinsmore is expected to arrive tonight from Nashville.

He is survived by his wife, four small children, his father, C. T. Dinsmore, one brother, Dr. Andrew Dinsmore and one sister, Mrs. J. H. Morris, of Nashville.

M'CLUSKEY HOME DAMAGED BY FIRE

Such complete destruction was wrought by flames this morning to the residence of E. W. McCluskey on Johnston street that it will have to be almost entirely rebuilt, was the verdict of many who witnessed the big blaze near 11 o'clock this morning.

Practically all the furniture of the house was removed before the flames had done their worst and no one was injured.

Some insurance is said to have been carried on the house.

The fire departments of both Albany and Decatur responded to the alarm, and lat for their heroic efforts the houses adjoining that of Mr. McCluskey would have burned.

Town Creek Beats Colbert County Hi

LEIGHTON, Ala., April 18.—The local Town Creek club easily defeated the Colbert County high school team in a fast game played here yesterday afternoon, the score being 4 to 2. Very few errors were made on either side.

"Lefty" Merchant, pitching for Town Creek, allowed only two hits, and struck out 14 men. Fielding features were contributed by Wells and LeMay of Town Creek who snatched down hot ones from each corner of the lot.

FOUR PERSONS ARE INJURED BY WRECK

(Associated Press.)
BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 18.—Four persons were injured, one seriously when passenger train No. 41, on the Alabama Great Southern railroad collided, early today, with an ore train near Bessemer.

J. L. Young, Birmingham, engineer, was badly scalded and his condition was pronounced serious. The other injured are: J. H. Lile, Birmingham, fireman; William Foster, Trenton, Ga., mail clerk and H. Shetinger, Chattanooga, Tenn., mail clerk. They will recover.

The locomotive, baggage and mail cars of the passenger train were derailed. The wreck tied up traffic for several hours.

New Model Cars In Hartselle Display

New model cars, a half dozen of them, today were displayed in Hartselle by the Malone Motor company. The cars, including four closed Buicks, one open model and an open model Chevrolet, were driven to Hartselle this morning by a party of local people and attracted much interest on the streets of Hartselle during the day.

The following local ladies accompanied the party to Hartselle: Mrs. W. K. McNeill, Mrs. Arwin Draper, Miss Sabine Dupont, Mrs. E. A. Tillery, Mrs. W. R. Shelton.

Revival Meetings To Begin Sunday

Beginning Sunday, Dr. James E. Dillard, of Birmingham, will open the annual revival meeting of the Central Baptist church, and the singing will be led by J. Fred Schofield, the well known evangelistic singer. On the same day the Central Methodist revival, accounts of which have already appeared will begin. A total of four and possibly five revival meetings will be in progress in the Twin Cities Sunday morning.

Sugar Reaches a New High Level

(Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, April 18.—New high records for the past three years were established in the refined sugar market today when leading refiners advanced list prices ten to 20 points. Some quoted fine granulated as high as 9.60 per pound. The jump was due to the continued strength of the raw market and bullish reports as to the size of the Cuban crop.

PROPOSED LINE TO ENTER RICH AREAS

Local Organization To Lend Its Help to
The Big Project

GREAT MEETING
NEXT TUESDAY

Birmingham Men Will Deliver Speeches Before Members

The directors' meeting of the Albany-Decatur chamber of commerce was attended by most of its members including J. W. Clopton, W. W. Russell and C. W. Matthews.

One of the live subjects discussed was the proposal of the Russellville chamber of commerce that this chamber cooperate in interesting the Louisville and Nashville railroad officials in the proposed branch line of that company which if completed will connect Moulton, the county seat of Lawrence County, with rich mineral deposits, and with a rich agricultural community. The proposed line would connect the Twin Cities, Mount Hope, Moulton and Russellville.

The directors form a committee the whole, designated by the chamber to see that the matter is taken up with officials and others who may be interested in the project.

The complete plan for the chamber meeting to be held next Tuesday night, as previously reported, was gone over, and the directors expressed much satisfaction at the announcement of J. W. Clopton, without fail Joe Loveman, the retail merchant expert on the management of retail merchants' associations, would be present at the meeting next week.

Equal assurance was given that O. L. Bunn, manager of the Birmingham chamber of commerce would be the guest of the chamber next Tuesday night and make a speech.

Tickets were directed and put at the disposal of the people of the community in general for the banquet that is to precede the regular membership meeting. 100 tickets were ordered printed, as only about 100 people can be accommodated at the banquet tables of the chamber.

Especially will the retail merchants be invited to the banquet in order to make sure they will have an opportunity to hear the suggestions and advice of Mr. Loveman.

Other matters of interest, which will be made public later on, were taken up and discussed by the directors.

TIMOTHY CHILDRESS IS CUT BY STRANGER

Timothy Childress, a prominent resident of South Albany, is a patient at the Benevolent hospital today due to a severe knife wound in the abdomen, said to have been inflicted by an unidentified person, who Mr. Childress says must have cut him by accident, as he did not know the man and had never seen him before the trouble.

Mr. Childress was at the circus last night and it was there he received the knife wound. The wielder of the knife has not been apprehended as yet.

Dr. W. H. Greer, upon examination of Childress last night, found that a small blood vessel had been severed, and a slight operation was found necessary. The wounded man was resting well at noon today.

BOOKS INSPECTED

WE FAVOR ACCEPTANCE OF HENRY FORD'S BID FOR MUSCLE SHOALS.

ED, THE POOR INDIAN.

The courts have recently held Indians exempt from income tax so far as their royalties are concerned, and in conformity with this decision the government is engaged in refunding the amounts collected during the last several years on Indian incomes. One Oklahoman is to receive $216,000 under the ruling, and several profit in amounts but little less.

After the American Indian had been dispossessed of his ancestral domain, and Indian wars had ceased to be a menace, pangs of conscience began to smite the new masters of the land and the white man's remorse began to express itself in statutes which hedged the red man about with protection accorded no one else, a sort of atonement for the injustice, real and fancied, of which the Indian had been the victim.

Once while some Indian legislation was under debate a congressman delivered himself of the following verses in parody on the then popular Sunday school song, "I Want to Be an Angel."

"I want to be an Indian,
A Choctaw or a Ute,
And not a common white man,
An unprotected brute."

The protection accorded the Indian has finally begun to show its results in the huge fortunes which members of the race have amassed. Whole tribes, like the Osage, revel in wealth, restrained by the government from bad bargains and human folly.

Probably no people has been more generally pitied than the American aborigines. Song and story have wrought upon our imagination and compassion and we have pictured in our minds the remnant of a noble race of free and valiant war and devastation pests, and the innumerable caravans facing extinction before the hosts of an advancing civilization.

As a matter of fact, however, there are probably more Indians in America today than at the time Columbus landed. Famines and wars no longer decimate their numbers, and upon land in extent not a thousandth part of what they once held, is produced more than was grown in all America by their ancestors.

As the Indian lawyer reads the court decision above referred to it is not probable that he is envying his grandfather's privilege of trailing deer and bison. —Nashville Tennessean.

The Germans were as sorry when the American soldiers left as they were when our army went to the Fatherland in 1917.

THE MASONIC TEMPLE.
Dedication of the $1,000,000 Masonic Temple in Birmingham by Alabama Masons marks today an epoch in the history of the order. This fine structure is pronounced by experts as without superior in exterior and interior beauty and finish in the country, and many claim it is the highest exponent of fraternal temple art. It is both an ornament of which the city is proud, and it offers a service which the people appreciate. It is a particularly gracious feature of the dedication to be able to show the first use of the temple was comfortably housing the annual convention of the state educational association when its several thousand teachers and others concerned with the cause of education in the state assembled here to consider and take steps for the advancement of that cause. Primarily the Masonic Temple is for Masons, but like everything else, it is also for the people of Birmingham.
Already the city enjoys the prestige of having that handsome structure as one of its show places. It will be the Mecca of Alabama Masons many times a year and it will be a credit to them and to Birmingham and Alabama every day in the year.—Age Herald.

The coal men are at last getting their time at the bat and although coal is high, many authorities claim that it is poor economy to sit in a chilly room this sort of weather without a fire in an endeavor to save the cost of coal. Influenza still lurks in the larger cities among the poor and uncomfortably housed populace, and it is the part of wisdom to take as few chances as possible.

INSURING THE FARMER'S CROPS.
The well known solicitude of the United States Senate for the American farmer will take a new turn the last week in April, when a special agricultural sub-committee will hold hearings on a bill designed to protect the farmer against some of the losses to which he is subject in the planting and growing of his crops. The object of the committee's researches will be to find some form of dependable crop insurance by which the farmer may be allowed to recover a portion of his expenditures in the event he fails to realize an average yield for his labor and his outlay.
It will mean a new departure in the broad realm of insurance, but it would be rash and shortsighted to stigmatize the movement as wholly visionary.

The farmer is now invited to take out insurance against the destruction of his property by storms and to protect the hazards that daily attend his livestock, it would seem to be well within the bounds of reasonable calculation that some system should be evolved by which he might remove or at least diminish the risks of unfriendly weather and devastating pests, and the innumerable calamities that beset his operations through the year.

The sub committee will strive to develop some method by which the Government at a small cost will stand ready to reimburse the farmer when dismal failure overtakes him and hand to him a warrant on the treasury as an indemnity for his misfortunes. It is a beautiful conception, but will it work out? —Selma Journal.

When America said she wanted nothing out of the war the nations seemed to have misunderstood. They gave us a lot of things we did not want.

THAT DYING CALF EXPRESSION
The boys have put on that dying calf expression and the flappers are adding a more deceptive goosy look into their eyes. (The oak trees are budding out and the dogwoods are in bloom and by heck we are almost prepared to say that Spring has cum.)

DO YOU KNOW HIM?
Why is it that a man with plenty of money will spend fifty cents each for his cigars without a complaint and jump at the chance to pick up a little Scotch at a hundred and fifty dollars a case and then go into a spasm over the extravagance of his wife because she has paid twenty-five cents a cake to provide the family and guest with really good toilet soap?

Watch your pimples vanish

Why? Pimple-Poison goes when Red-Blood-Cells increase! S. S. S. builds these Red-Blood-Cells.

You can be sure of this, nature has no substitute for red-blood-cells. Pimple-poison can't live in the red river of your blood as long as there are enough rich red-blood-cells in it. More red-blood-cells! That is what you need when you see pimples staring at you in the mirror. "Black-headed pimples are worse! Eczema is worse yet! You can try everything under the sun, you'll find only one answer, more cell-power in your blood! The tremendous science, produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C.'s of medical science. Red-cells mean clear, pure, rich blood. They mean clear, healthy, lovely complexions. They mean nerve power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the black-head pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatic impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1826, as one of the greatest blood-builders, blood-cleansers and system strengtheners ever produced. S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores. The large size bottle is more economical.

Athens News

ATHENS, Ala., April 18—Athens has been for the last two days active in making a collection for the Alabama Children's Aid Society. Miss Virginia Handley of Birmingham has been here since Saturday afternoon. She spoke in the churches Sunday and at some of the schools on Monday. Committees of men and women were soon on the job and the response to this call has been most cordial in the city.

The Kiwanis Club held an unusually good meeting Tuesday evening at their regular luncheon hour. The dinner was served by the Ladies of the Methodist church and this is to say it was well done. A large attendance was present and the meeting was most enthusiastic. This being "Courtesy" week, the program was along that line. Mr. W. J. Howard, of the Farmers and Merchants bank gave a most excellent address on the subject.

Many of the young people of the Baptist church of Athens are preparing to attend the Northern Baptist convention of B. Y. P. U. workers in Huntsville next Thursday and Friday. All of the counties of North Alabama are in this district and a great program has been prepared. It is expected that this meeting shall be as enthusiastic as the one held in the Central church at Albany last year.

Preparations are being made to entertain the District conference of the Methodist church here in Athens next week. We are expecting the ministers and visitors to be in the homes of Athens and to make the city rejoice for a season.

ADAMS-PENICK.

Rainbow Wedding Solemnized
Tuesday at St. John's Church.

One of the most brilliant weddings
of the season was solemnized on Tuesday at high noon when Miss Mary Penick and Captain John Cooper
Adams were united in marriage at St. John's Episcopal church, Rev. T.
G. Mundy, officiating. The church was radiant with wild spring flowers, southern smilax and ferns, and was lighted with hundreds of candles. A basket of white lilies, tied with tulle, was suspended over the chancel where
the bridal couple pledged their love,
and the final ritual was performed
before the altar which was also effectively decorated.

Preceding the ceremony a beautiful musical program was rendered, vocal solo, Mrs. W. K. McNeill, solo, B. B.
Pickens, violin solo, Miss Alice Hatton and solo, Mrs. A. A. Hardage.
They were accompanied by Mrs. E.
E. Graves on the organ.

At the first peals of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the two little flower girls, Jane Davis, dressed in pink acordon pleated crepe-de chine with touches of lace, and Marjory Phin-tzy, wearing a shell pink chiffon dress over blue silk with blue streamers hanging from the lace yolk, entered from the vestry; next came the matron of honor, Mrs. T. M. Jones Jr., a sister of the bride, and she was attractively gowned in rose taffeta, wearing a lighthouse hat, and carrying bouquet of roses. Mrs. Allene King wore white orchid taffeta and her hat was trimmed with lilac. Miss Edith Doss was dressed in green taffeta
with hat to match; Miss Carolee Speake was pretty in her pink green dress and lighthouse hat with touches
of pink; Miss Nan Killough, cousin of the bride, wore a dress of pale blue with accessories to harmonize and Miss Mary Harvey was dressed in a pretty dress of a turquoise blue. All of the maids carried arm bouquets
of bridesmaids roses tied with tulle.

The ushers, Carlile Blackwell, T. M.
Jones Jr., Edwin Shackelford, Frank
Spiller, Dr. J. C. Bragg and Clifton Almon, met the bridal party at the door and with them preceded the bride, who entered on the arm of her father, E. N. Penick, to the altar where they were joined by the groom and his best man, Asbury Malone. The bride was never prettier than in her blue point twill suit, made balkan style, with grey hat and shoes, and carrying a bouquet of brides roses.
Immediately after the vows were taken the young couple motored to Athens where they boarded the southbound train and after their nuptial trip they will go to Port Sil, Okla., where Captain Adams is stationed.
Miss Penick was one of the most popular young girls of Albany and will be greatly missed in social circles here. Captain Adams was born and reared here and numbers his friends
by his acquaintances.

Been So Weak She Had
to Go to Bed.

Oswatimie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast,
formerly of Illinois, residing here, says:
"We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while, and then some year of so ago I had a bad sick spell."

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up.
I lay for three months, not able to do anything."

"My husband is a bill poster and has chanced to be a Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui."

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months."

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman."

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no better tonic made for women than Cardui."

SEEK TO ENFORCE ADVERTISING LAWS

(Associated Press.)

MOBILE, Ala., April 13.—Action by the retail department of the Mobile Chamber of Commerce has been started in attempting to secure legislation in making the advertising laws of the state effective.

According to officials of the Mobile organization, the present statute prohibiting fraudulent advertising is without power because of the word "knowingly" which is contained in the statute.

The act was passed by the Alabama legislature and approved in September of 1915, the title of which reads as follows:

"An act to regulate, prohibit and provide punishment for the publication of untrue and misleading advertisements, and requiring that all newspapers and other periodical advertisements be marked 'advertisement'."

In a letter to Myron T. Sprague, secretary of the commercial division of the Mobile Chamber of Commerce, the National Vigilance Committee of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the world says that opposition to the statute usually shows itself in an endeavor to include the word "knowingly" in connection with misrepresentations covered by law.

Declaring themselves to be in line with the Truth-in-Advertising campaign that is being conducted in many states, with 22 of them having eliminated the word "knowingly" or "with fraudulent intent" from their advertising statutes, the Mobile chamber is seeking the assistance of other commercial clubs over the state.

In keeping with these views, the Mobile chamber has passed resolutions to this effect, officials state. The following reasons are given for the change in legislation:

"Merchants who invest large sums in advertising honest goods can not afford to have advertising space made ineffective by competitors who make fraudulent and untruthful offers to the public through advertisements."

"The public feels that it is entitled to the Truth-in-Advertising and protection from fraudulent publications of every character."

"Every reputable element in the transaction between the merchant, the publisher, and the public demands an effective law on this subject, for the prevention of fraud and the protection of the buying public."

Amusements

Tom Garner and his University of Alabama Glee Club which was heard and seen at the Court House Monday evening captured the hearts of the large audience. The program was one of the most varied ever offered here for it included solos, quartets, choruses, a musical sketch, dancing stunts, violin solos, selections by the jazz orchestra and in fact everything in a musical line that one would expect from a bunch of college boys. One of the most novel features of the evening were the bottle blowers, each of the young men blowing a bottle varying in size and on these instruments they played familiar songs. The tones produced from the bottles which contained water, were similar to those of an organ.

Another novelty was the sketch "A Case in Court," the words and music being written by a former member of the Club. The boys were especially clever with their impersonations of the various characters.

The Novelty Orchestra proved one of the hits of the evening and it was not until they had responded to a number of encores were they permitted to leave the stage. The better numbers of the program were done equally as well as those of lighter vein. A "Musical Trust" was splendidly done as was an "Even Song" by Nevin. The chorus sang well, showing careful training and continuous work together.—Meridian Star.

PRINCESS' GREATEST PICTURE COMING.

Princess Thursday. "The Three Musketeers" coming to the Princess next Thursday for a two days stay is announced by the house manager, as the most gripping and spectacular film ever produced by Douglas Fairbanks.

Based on that universal read classic by Alexander Dumas, "The Three Musketeers," and added to from the Memoirs of D'Artagnan, this feature is said to embody more that is adventurous, romantic and dramatic than it has ever before been possible to incorporate in a film vehicle. The feats of swordsmanship alone in this picture are said to be worth the price of admission. Added to that are specially arranged prologues and a musical accompaniment written to order for the production by Louis Gatuschalk, one of our best contemporary composers.

This picture comes to the Princess following a remarkable run in New York where it was shown at the Lyric Theatre and given the unanimous approval of Broadway.

Fred Niblo, who directed Douglas Fairbanks in "The Three Musketeers" was formerly a Cohan and Harris star in the "speakesies."

Power Company's Offices Renovated

The two offices maintained here by the Alabama Power Company have recently been overhauled until they are the envy of the office people of the Twin Cities. And on top of this it is stated that traveling people have pronounced the new arrangement of the local offices as superior to that of any of the other offices of the whole power company's system, possibly the home offices.

New paper and new paint are the things most in evidence to the casual observer, but those who know what modern offices ought to be say the present arrangement put into effect by Manager Beauchamp, is thoroughly modern in every respect and unsurpassed.

THE PAIN-IT'S

"That Prescription It."

"A week ago I was suffering from a headache that I felt it was me crazy. I could not take any phenacetin on account of the stomach. But the druggist advised me to take Kozol which he said was a splendid prescription. It not only relieved the pain but to my surprise had no effect on the heart whatsoever. It is one of my neighbors from sciatica and it proved effective."

Kozol can be obtained in druggist in tablet form. It is from any unpleasant after-effects often experienced from other remedies, makes it a most desirable remedy when seeking relief from colds.—Adv.

"Purring" Motors Come From Pouring Polarine In Your Crank Case

Automobile construction has reached such a high point of efficiency that nearly any car you buy will give you good service if you take the right care
of it.

Proper lubrication is, of course, the most essential thing to motor satisfaction—and remember always that the motor is the heart of the car. If the pistons and cylinder walls are lubricated with the right quality and the right weight of oil, you will have no bother or expense with either of the two great causes of trouble—friction
and lost power.

Polarine is a motor oil made from the very heart of choicest crude petroleum, refined, filtered and purified so as to produce just the right "oiliness"
for every motor. Made in four weights,
"Medium"—"Heavy"—"Heavy X"—and
"Heavy XX." By following the chart of recommendations (which is on display at all Polarine dealers), you can be absolutely assured of getting the proper weight for your motor.

FATHER MYSTIFIED BY ABSENCE OF SON

Authorities of these States have been enlisted in the search being made for Daniel Beach, Jr., 38 years old, whose disappearance from the home
of his father, O. W. Beach, Oretga, Fla., December 7 last, is one of the strangest on record.

DANIEL BEACH, JR.

Since the day following his disappearance, when he was picked up in a dozed condition near Palatka, Fla., all trace of the man has been lost,
despite efforts of police, Boy Scouts and railroad detectives to locate him.
His mysterious absence has prostrated
the man's aged parents.

Appeals have been made to Federal authorities to assist in the search, inasmuch as the missing man was for many years a Federal employe and had been retired only a month before his disappearance because of physical disability resulting from a nervous breakdown due to the confining nature of his duties.

Unable to find the least trace of his son, the father, who was in the Federal service for forty-five years,
has made an urgent appeal to newspapers throughout the South to assist in the search.

The missing man is described as of light complexion, blue eyes, light
brown hair, front teeth gold filled,
left side slightly smaller than right, walks with perceptible limp. He was subject to slight epileptic attacks, and is thought to have wandered off from his home while in a dazed condition.

Anyone who recalls having seen this man is asked to communicate with the Police Department, Jacksonville, Fla. A reward has been offered for information leading to discovery of his whereabouts.

THE GLEE CLUB AT LAUREL, MISSISSIPPI

The University of Alabama Glee Club scored a tremendous hit last evening at the Strand Theatre. Ever since it was first learned that these artists of such wide repute were to favor Laurel with a visit, their coming has been anticipated with untold interest. The reputation of Alabama's Glee Club has covered a period of many years and all those who know anything of that grand old institution never fail to revel in the very sound of its name.

The beautiful Strand was filled with an audience that manifested the greatest appreciation. The applause given these musicians was almost deafening and quite unceasing. They not only played, sang and danced beautifully but the pleasure of their program was enhanced by their attractive appearance and by the fun that they themselves so evidently derived from it. They were certainly one of the jolliest, most obliging and thoroughly wholesome company of young men that ever appeared before a Laurel audience. Bubbling over with enthusiasm, with college spirit and loyalty to the old U. of A. they were certainly irresistible themselves.

One of the most novel numbers was the chorus of bottle blowers who were remarkable in their harmony produced with just every day bottles. The quartet numbers also stand out among the brightest and best numbers on the program. The musical sketch charmingly diversified the program. This was not only amusing but extraordinary fine from a musical standpoint. The Capstone Serenaders were enraptured over and over again. One could not but be impressed by the versatility of these young men. Many of them possessing such a variety of talents. The voice of Mr. Hendrix seemed to strike particularly a responsive note.—Laurel, Miss. Leader.

Reducing Freight Loss and Damage Claims -

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad Company, in its effort to furnish efficient transportation service to its patrons, has for many months conducted an intensive educational campaign designed to eliminate the causes for loss and damage claims;
and its management takes considerable pride in the results so far accomplished.

The tabulation below shows the number and value of all loss and damage claims filed with the L. & N. by its patrons during the years of 1920, '21 and '22; and the material reduction, both in the number of claims filed and the amount of money involved, is most gratifying.

Year	Number	Amount Claimed
1920	84,176	$3,144,930.46
1921	47,765	1,557,295.31
1922	36,378	1,220,913.18

It will be observed that in the course of two years there has been a reduction of approximately 57 per cent in the number of new claims filed and a reduction of 61 per cent in the amount claimed.

This satisfactory showing is due in a substantial degree to the hearty co-operation with which shippers have responded to the rules, approved by the Interstate Commerce Commission, governing the preparation of freight shipments; by packing in durable containers goods intended for less-than-carload shipments, thus avoiding damage when loaded into cars with other freight; by marking packages plainly as to name of consignee and destination; by removing old marks appearing on packages;
and by furnishing legible billing and orders so as to avoid confusion and possible mis-routing.

The Louisville & Nashville Railroad appreciates the fact that its patrons do not enjoy the necessity of continually filing claims; and every possible effort is being made—and with commendable success—to impress upon its employees the imperative duty of handling freight at all times in such manner as to eliminate the possibility of loss and damage.
